

A DECADE OF DECISIONS

Voters Said No. It Got Built Anyway.

Votes, contracts, and decisions from 2015 to 2026.

2015 Voters reject a $50 million airport bond. 51% said no.

2018 The city buys the 190 acres anyway.

2023 Voters reject a $200 million airport terminal bond. 59% said no.

2024 Council approves a $220 million amphitheater - $26 million cash and city land valued at $35 million. No public vote.

2025 Council approves roughly $58 million in airport contracts. The vote is 4-2.

2026 The Texas Attorney General orders the city to release an airline agreement signed with no council vote.

2026 The city sues its own residents in an Austin court, 200 miles away, to validate $30 million in airport bonds and block any challenge to them.

Two elections. One answer. Ignored both times.
